ABOUT THE ARTIST

Elisa Noguera is a London-based artist who uses photography to explore the dynamic between different surfaces, shapes, materials, and gestures. Common subjects in her works are amorphous rodents obscured from behind and textile backgrounds as stand-ins for nature. The multiple disjunctive narratives in her pictures, captured with a clear adeptness for the craft, is inviting to behold despite being difficult to understand. Noguera's photography prints have been shown at Angelika Open 2012, Angelika Studios, Wycombe; Belfast Photofestival, Belfast Waterfront, Belfast (2011); Open Here, Hereford Photo Festival, Hereford (2011).
