ABOUT THE ARTIST

Nobuyoshi Araki (Tokyo, 1940) is a contemporary artist working primarily through photography. Considered a legend in his native Japan, Araki has published hundreds of books featuring his pictures. Nude art is his most often visited form; Araki is spellbound by the small, private spans of time that form the foundation of a couple's intimacy. This fascination leads to a span of original artwork rich in sentimental depictions of the highly erotic. His works have been featured at Taka Ishii Gallery.
