ABOUT THE ARTIST

Romana Londi is an Italian multimedia artist based in London. The dizzying themes that chart her original artwork are presented in order to spellbind the acute viewer. Through the paintings, drawings, installations, and performances that comprise her practice, Londi journeys through time and space in an endeavor to research visual perception - specifically, how a viewer would perceive her work. Her exhibitions include: Romana Londi: From Hand to Mouth, Kenny Schachter/ROVE; Quarter III; The Limits of Law, STATE ART, Freies Museum, Berlin.
