ABOUT THE ARTIST

Agus Suwage (Cepiring, Indonesia, 1959) is a Yogyakarta-based multimedia artist who unpacks the phenomenon of death in his paintings, sculptures, drawings, and installations. Engaging his beholders with iconography and popular symbols, his images invite a hard look at death in order to make sense of life. Suwage's work has been exhibited at a number of international galleries, including: Tyler Rollins Fine Art, New York, NY, USA (2017); Yogyakarta Art Museum, Indonesia (2009); the Singapore Biennale, Singapore (2006).
