ABOUT THE ARTIST

Mohammad Hossein Ariyaei (Isfahan Province, 1987) is an Iranian artist working primarily through painting. As a child, Ariyaei would find escape through Harry Potter books. After having worked as a building guard and serving time in the military, he decided to dedicate himself to his artwork. His obsessive paintings show a soul in search of definition, travelling through media in order to find it. Ariyaei's original artwork has been featured in Sur Le Fil, a group exhibition by Collectionair.
